Assisting were Mrs. Frank Durbin, Mrs. Clyde Graham, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. Ralph Jackson of Peoria, Ill., and Miss Barbara Steiner.

What Gompers Will Ask of Democrats

St. Louis, Mo., June 13.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, is here today prepared to make on the resolution committee demands similar to those he made on the republicans in Chicago.

The republican platform gave labor the promise of a stringent child labor law, "safety first" legislation and "extension of bureau of mines." This was only a small part of what labor asked.

If a man feels like a fool while he is getting married, he must feel like a blockhead at his wooden wedding.

AFTER 20 YEARS IN THE PEN, WADE TO RETURN WHEN HIS PARENTS DIE

After serving over 20 years in the state penitentiary Frank Wade was given a conditional pardon by Governor Withycombe today to go to the home of his aged parents at Central Point. One of the conditions of the pardon is that Wade is to return to the penitentiary when his parents die if he is wanted by the officials of the pen. Wade cheerfully promised to return to serve out the remainder of his life sentence if he is allowed to aid his parents in their declining years.

Wade was sent up from Jackson county December 16, 1895, to serve a life sentence for second degree murder. Part of the time he has been in the state hospital but the prison officials say that he has been a good prisoner and is deserving of a glimpse of sunshine from the outside at least while his parents live so that they may believe that their son has paid the penalty to full for the crime for which he was sentenced. A brother, Lawrence Wade, was tried and convicted at the same time for the same offense and his sentence was commuted by the Governor Lord in August, 1897, and released.

Virgil A. Perrine, who was convicted of assault and robbery, September 13, 1915, was also conditionally pardoned today by the governor. Perrine is the man who walked into the bank at Milwaukie in broad daylight and held up the cashier and robbed the bank. He will return to the home of his father in St. Louis Mo.

Pardons were granted by the governor to the following prisoners who have either served their minimum sentences or will have completed their time before the next month: Mark Giddings, Washington county, March 21, 1915, larceny, from a school house; William A. Hill, Lake county, December 15, 1914, assault with intent to kill; Clifton Akers, Coos county, February 8, 1913, burglary; M. W. Bohan, Umatilla county, July 8, 1915, larceny; Frank C. Wilson, Baker county, April 19, 1913, obtaining money under false pretenses; Walter Willis, Multnomah county, June 9, 1915, larceny in a dwelling; W. L. Holbrook, Multnomah county, May 29, 1915, attempt at larceny in a shop; James Osborn, Coos county, January 16, 1915, obtaining money under false pretenses; James Daley, Union county, June 13, 1914; larceny in a store; Walter Gilman, Umatilla county, February 9, 1915; larceny of a cow; James L. Fogarty, Lake county, December 16, 1915, assault with a dangerous weapon; John Carlson, Clatsop county, June 26, 1915, larceny in a store; Bert Combs, Sherman county, November 23, 1914; assault with a dangerous weapon; Junior Thompson, Clatsop county, June 5, 1915, assaulting an officer and aiding a prisoner to escape; J. F. O'Brien, Lane county, June 9, 1915, obtaining money under false pretenses; W. H. Burton, Union county, April 3, 1915, obtaining money under false pretenses; Robert Granville, Multnomah county, February 18, 1915, assault with intent to rob; Robert Wilson, Multnomah county, January 14, 1915, larceny from a person; F. J. Moore, Baker county, June 16, 1915, larceny from a dwelling; Charles Gallagher, Josephine county, September 30, 1914, assault with intent to kill; L. D. Hughes, Multnomah county, July 8, 1915, larceny by bailee; George Hamilton, Jackson county, July 2, 1915, assault with intent to rape; Nicholas P. Nielson, Wasco county, October 14, 1915, adultery.

Colonel Visits City Does Not See Hughes

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 13.—Though Colonel Roosevelt has declared he is out of politics, it can be stated today that he "will not abandon his struggle to place the United States on a proper base of preparedness."

The information was obtained from a person in close touch with the colonel. Just how he will work could not be learned. Roosevelt has refused to make any statements on his going to New York to meet his son Kermit and Kermit's wife and baby, due today from Panama on the transport Kiriakopatrik. He will first go to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Richard Derby.

"No provisions is made in the colonel's itinerary for a call on Charles E. Hughes, the republican candidate.
